Dear Guest,

We are sorry for the mishandling of your property and apologize for any inconvenience this has caused you. We are committed to doing everything possible to ensure a prompt resolution.

We use a computerized tracing system which searches airlines worldwide. It is essential to this tracing process that we have the information on the attached form. The information you provide will enable us to process your claim more effectively.

This form must be completed and returned to our Claims office no later than 45 days after your travel date. As soon as the form is received, we can begin our resolution process. Regrettably, we are unable to accept or process claim forms submitted more than 45 days after the date of loss or damage. Your cooperation is appreciated.

Please provide the required information to process your claim:

- □ Baggage claim check(s)
- □ Airline Itinerary Information
- □ If applicable, receipts for excess value claimed or excess baggage charges paid
- □ Receipts for all items over $100.00 USD
- □ Clear and legible Government issued photo ID for each person making a claim
- □ Damage claims: retain all damaged bags and/or contents until your claim has been resolved
- □ Missing item claims: guests must file a police report with local law enforcement
- ▣ We recommend retaining copies of all documents submitted to the airline for your personal records

Most claims are resolved within 4 to 6 weeks of receiving this form. We will contact you in writing regarding a resolution of your claim. If you have not heard from us after 6 weeks from the time you submitted this form, please contact our office.

Be advised that all claims are reviewed for fraud and falsification of this form is a crime.

Thank you for your cooperation in providing this information. We appreciate your patience and understanding.

Sincerely,

Alaska Airlines

STATEMENT OF MISHANDLING

Prompt completion and return of this form is essential to the successful tracing and/or resolution of your claim. Failure to submit this form within 45 days from the date of loss could preclude consideration of the claim. If more than one piece of baggage is missing, a separate list of contents and description of each bag is required. Please type or print legibly and retain a copy of all documents for your records.

IMPORTANT - CERTIFICATION AND UNDERSTANDING

Alaska Airlines reserves the right to resolve claims in accordance with our liability limitations as outlined in our Notice of Baggage Liability and Conditions of Contract and Tariff. Information gathered on this form may be shared with law enforcement agencies, other airlines, insurance agencies, or merchants where items were purchased. Actual value for reimbursement of lost or damaged property shall be determined by the documented original purchase price less depreciation.

I warrant that I am the owner of the property listed on this form and as such agree to indemnify Alaska Airlines against claims of any others with respect to this property. Should Alaska Airlines demonstrate that any of my statements on these forms are false, Alaska Airlines shall have the right to recover any amounts paid based on false statements. Alaska Airlines also reserves the right to deny any claim it deems false or without merit. Further, I warrant that this statement and those on the accompanying form(s) and receipt(s) are accurate, complete, and true. I do hereby make a claim against Alaska Airlines in the total including bag cost amount of $ 36 for a loss occurring on 22/12/2023.

The United States Post Office has investigating jurisdiction under federal laws relating to sending false or fraudulent claims through the United States mail. Any such claims received by Alaska Airlines may be reported to the United States Postal Authorities. Losses of baggage in interstate shipment or of articles from such baggage due to theft come within the purview of the federal statutes and therefore, are subject to investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
