Develop & Stretch Your Adobe Capabilities

Based on your responses above, if you selected the following at least three times for each Capability:

- I do this all the time - You're leading the way! You are strong in this Capability and can role model this Capability for others to become great too.
- I do this often – You're building your strength and on your way to role modeling the actions and behaviors for this Capability.
- I do this once in a while - You can grow and develop this Capability to support your day-to-day role.

As you begin to understand your areas of strengths and opportunities, remember that it will take time to become strong in all three Capabilities. This guide is a starting point to select which Capabilities you'd like to focus on. You can leverage the customized resources linked on Inside Adobe > Search: Adobe Capabilities under Develop and Stretch Your Capabilities.
